

JUSTICE SUCCESS STORY

Acquitting Ali from being detained in a false drug case at Hyderabad

40 years old Ali Nawaz earned only 7000 PKR as a daily wage laborer to feed his family. On his way back from work, Ali was stopped by the Police.

Assuming this was a routine, Ali obliged - he was body searched however nothing was found on him. Police demanded gratification in exchange for his release.

When Ali denied paying the officials, he was detained illegally.

While in detention, Ali was also allegedly tortured. An FIR was registered implicating Ali in a false drug case, a few days after he was detained and imprisoned in Nara Prison Hyderabad.

Considering his financial background, Ali's case was referred to CWP-LAO lawyer, Ms. Noreen Sheikh by the 7th Judicial Magistrate Hyderabad on 6th December 2022. His vakalatnama was filed on the same day.

Based on the ambiguities found in the prosecution's witness statements and failure of the prosecution to prove their allegations, the case concluded on acquitting Ali of all charges on 7th December 2022..
