From Accusation to Acquittal: Gul's Swift Journey to Justice in Karachi

Gul, a 30-year-old resident of Karachi and the sole provider for his elderly parents, faced imprisonment in District Prison Malir on false drug charges. His plight caught the attention of Mr. Khalid Hussain Shah, advocate from the Committee.

On February 20, 2024, Mr. Shah filed a vakalatnama on Gul's behalf, initiating a legal battle for his freedom. Upon continuous absence of the complainant, Mr. Shah filed for Gul's acquittal. persisted in advocating for Gul's innocence.

The Court found all accusations against Gul baseless and on April 23, 2024, after just 2 months and 4 days, Gul was declared innocent, freeing him from the unjust burden of criminal charges.

This swift resolution underscores the importance of fair representation and the tireless efforts of advocates like Mr. Shah in securing justice for all.
